

Shhhh... Here are some secret things about the art.

The animals all have names.

- The dog is called Dandy, because his furry paws and head are made from dandelions.
- The blue jay is named Snip because his beak is made out of scissors.
- The squirrels are named Pita and Bagel.
- The cat is named Zipper.

I hid a picture of my dog Leo in one of the pictures. Can you find it?

One hint: He's a black lab.

Second hint: You can find him in the cafe.

Third hint: You only see his fur and it's wet.

The blue butterfly is on every pair of boxes.

There are five other pictures that are used on every pair. Can you find them?

(Answer: clothespin, traffic cone, latte, crosswalk arrow, telephone dial)

There are more than 500 individual photos making up the scenes on each box. I took about 700 photos just for this project.
